Value Transformation LLC Partners with GEP to add Product and Project Management to GEP's Procurement expertise.

Lexington, NC - Value Transformation LLC, a provider of product development consulting and teaching services, announced today that it has signed a contract with GEP, a global expert in procurement.

The partnership will bring together the expertise of both companies to provide clients with a comprehensive and integrated approach to product development. GEP's experience in procurement will complement Value Transformation's focus on product and manufacturing line development, resulting in a more efficient and effective product development and optimization process.

"We are thrilled to be working with GEP," said Jon M Quigley, Principle of Value Transformation LLC.

"Their expertise in procurement management is a compliment to our product development and product management expertise and will be a valuable asset to our clients, and we look forward to the successful outcomes this partnership will bring."
