

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 17, 2023

Simplilearn Hosts Webinar on Project Management with Jon M Quigley from Value Transformation LLC on February 23, 2023.

Value Transformation, is an organization with business and product development expertise. Our team members have fulfilled many roles in product development, ceded patents to organizations, coached individuals and organizations on a myriad of associated product development topics. This includes authoring books (often used as text books at universities around the world) and key project and product management topics.

The webinar will be hosted by Rasha Khan from SimpliLearn, and will feature Jon M Quigley of Value Transformation LLC long experienced in project management. Together, they will share insights and experiences, covering topics such as project lifecycle, project knowledge areas and project strategies, tactics, and challenges.

As the product development and project management continues to evolve, it is important to stay up-to-date with the latest practices and techniques as well as challenges. This webinar will provide a unique opportunity to explore a career as a project manager and how to set about doing so through valuable insights into the profession.

The webinar will also include a live Q&A session, allowing attendees to interact directly with the panelists and ask questions about their own product management challenges.

"We encourage everyone interested in project management to join us for this exciting event," added Jon M Quigley the speaker at this event. "It is a great opportunity to learn that can help you take your own project management skills to the next level."

Registration for the webinar is now open, and interested participants can sign up for free on the Simplilearn website.
